Production of the series was delayed due to Hammond's accident in September 2006, and did not begin until the following month, and the first episode of the series has subsequently never been repeated on TV owing to Hammond's near-death experience.. In addition, the 'Best of Top Gear' special meant to be broadcast before Series 9 and showcase the best moments of Series 8, was delayed and later shown in place of the repeat of the fifth episode of the series.. The series featured two specials that were broadcast after the series had ended, -'Top Gear of the Pops' on 16 March and the 'Top Gear: Polar Special' on 25 July.
